Four Mile Institute

1923-24

Memo: Also Known as Thomas Grove School. This school was outside of Dunbarton and was abandoned in 1952 when the Savannah River Plant forced the relocation of people within portions of Aiken, Barnwell, and Allendale counties. The school served students throughout Barnwell county, many of whom boarded during the week to attend school. All 11 grades were taught until 1948 when the 12th grade was added, but most students only attended the school for their last 4 years.
Though recognizable only by a large pine tree and remnants of the foundation, alumni still gather every 2 years for a reunion.
